Kids, 14 and 15, Wanting Scooter Permit Better Rush

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Fourteen and 15-year-olds who want motor scooter licenses had better hurry.

The Ohio House has passed a bill to ban them. Approval by the Senate and Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is expected before long.

Representatives voted 76-53 for the bill Wednesday after an hour-long debate. It provides that youngsters under 16 cannot obtain such licenses after the law becomes effective 90 days following the governor's signature. Licenses obtained before that date would be good until they expire.

Senators passed a House-approved measure allowing a boost of about five million dollars a year in fees charged for courthouse services in all 88 counties. The fees are those charged by county auditors, treasurers, recorders, clerks and sheriffs. The vote was 32-1 with Sen. Fred L. Hoffman (R-Hamilton) dissenting.

A similar bill cleared the Legislature two years ago but died under a veto by then Gov. C. William O'Neill.

Senators also completed passage

Colonel Bumps GIs; General Bumps Colonel

TOKYO (AP)—Seven American enlisted men going on emergency leave—one to the bedside of his critically ill mother—were assigned seats on the U.S. military airliner from Tokyo.

The deluxe "Pacific Express" was flying to California with a stop at Hawaii.

At the last minute on March 26 a lieutenant colonel with his wife and family—six in all—showed up at the airport, bound for a Hawaii vacation.

The GIs were bumped and the colonel and family given their seats.

Airman Coye Y. Bell of Fayetteville, Tenn., telephoned Lt. Gen. Robert W. Burns, commander of U.S. forces in Japan, to protest that he was trying to get home to his ill mother.

The plane was half an hour out of Tokyo over the Pacific before the general could verify the complaint. Burns ordered the aircraft back and went himself to Tachikawa Air Base to see that the GIs got their seats back.

A song those with Bell were Sgt. Paul S. Cain, Sedalia, Mo.; Airman Robert J. Kindl, Saratoga Springs, N.Y.; Airman Gordon N. Read, Ithaca, N.Y. and Sgt. John P. Snyder, Vandergrift, Pa.

The colonel's name is being withheld pending completion of an investigation. A U.S. Air Force spokesman explained that he "might be completely innocent in the affair."

Dalai Lama Said Refugee In India Now

Nationalist Chinese Report Fighting Still Continues in Tibet

LONDON (AP)—Red China's radio declared today Tibet's Dalai Lama has taken refuge in India. The broadcast, quoting the New China News Agency, said the Dalai Lama left Tibet "under duress by the rebellious elements."

And in Taipei, Formosa, Nationalist China's official Central News Agency reported today that Tibetan rebels and Chinese Communist troops are still fighting 165 miles northeast of Lhasa as well as near the Tibetan capital.

Central News said the report came from intelligence sources in Lhasa. There was no way of checking its accuracy, but Peiping radio said speakers at a meeting in Lhasa urged the Red army "to continue mopping up the rebels in remote areas of Tibet."

The Central News Agency report said more than 100 Communist troops were killed Monday and Tuesday in the Heiho area and fighting was still in progress. Communist reinforcements from Sinkiang, bound for Lhasa, were reported to have arrived at Heiho, a small highway town 165 miles northeast of the capital and 60 miles from Tibet's frontier with the Chinese province of Tsinghai.

The report also said the rebels controlled the highway between Lhasa and Shigatse, the second largest town in Tibet 140 miles southwest of Lhasa and the site of the lamasery headed by the Panchen Lama.

This report, if correct, could mean that the Panchen Lama, named by the Communists to replace the Dalai Lama as head of the Tibetan local government, so far could not reach the capital. The Communist radio had reported him still in Shigatse on Monday. There was a possibility, however, that the Reds plan for him to "govern" from Shigatse since his following in Lhasa presumably is small.

Communist reports charged that the rebels put the torch to a 500-year-old Moslem mosque and burned at least 20 huts of Tibet's Moslem minority.

Usually reliable sources at the Indian border town of Kalimpong said the Red swarms moving 100 truckloads of Tibetans out of Lhasa daily, taking them to unknown destinations. The report said the Reds were moving 100 leading south to India were being arrested.

The House passed a bill carrying a maximum fine of $500 and six months in jail for persons threatening harm or using lewd language over the telephone.

Sen. Arthur Blake (D-Belmont) created a stir by drafting a resolution calling for an investigation of state liquor agents' activities in checking on gambling for the governor. He asserted the agents were spying on other liquor department employees.

Eddie Fisher-Liz Taylor Wedding Planned in Mexico in Next 6 Weeks

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Singer Eddie Fisher said today that he and Elizabeth Taylor will marry in Mexico within the next six weeks.

Wednesday night he had said they would wed in Las Vegas if he could get the consent of his former wife, Debbie Reynolds.

But he added later that he had slight hope of getting Miss Reynolds to agree to a Nevada decree. She has obtained a California divorce which will not be final for a year.

Fisher pointed out that he could get a divorce in Mexico without his former wife's consent.

Asked if that means he and raven-haired Miss Taylor would get married in Mexico, Fisher nodded in agreement.

He and Miss Taylor said they have not selected the site for the wedding.

"We do not want it to be public," she said.

Fisher pointed out that Miss Taylor is leaving in May for Europe to make a movie. He said he is going with her.

"We want to travel as man and wife," he said.

Miss Taylor said she hoped Miss Reynolds might consent to a Nevada decree on her return from movie work in Spain in a few days.

"Debbie was very much hurt at first to find out that Eddie and I were in love," said Miss Taylor. "That is very understandable, but I think the hurt has now left and that she may consent to Eddie getting a divorce in Nevada. What has she got to gain by opposing it?"

This discussion followed the opening of Fisher's show at the Tropicana Hotel. Miss Taylor attended the opening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor of La Jolla, Calif.

Fisher said he had tried to get Debbie's consent to a quickie divorce but was rebuffed.

Debbie said earlier she wouldn't consent because it would be embarrassing to explain to her two children how their father could have two wives at the same time.

Under a Nevada decree, Fisher and Miss Taylor could not live as man and wife in California until Debbie's decree is final, under penalty of bigamy charges.

Fisher was favorably received in his singing appearance Wednesday night. When Miss Taylor entered the crowded dining room she received a warm round of applause.

Earlier, pickets appeared before the hotel with signs, one of which read: "Liz, go home!"

Alcorn Ending Job with GOP

Selecting Convention Site Is Current Task

WASHINGTON (AP)—Retiring Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn turned today to the business of helping to pick a 1960 national convention site for his party as speculation over a new party chairman continued.

Alcorn, who notified President Eisenhower Wednesday of his intention to quit, had a date to receive in mid-afternoon a Chicago delegation reportedly ready to raise that city's previous cash offer of $300,000 for the convention to $500,000.

Ray C. Bliss, site committee chairman, will join Alcorn for the closed meeting with the Chicago group, now bidding with Philadelphia and New York for the right to play host to the GOP when it nominates a presidential ticket next year.

The site committee will recommend a city and date to the full committee at a meeting here April 10. The full committee will decide the issue the next day.

The same full committee meeting will receive Alcorn's formal resignation as chairman of the national committee. Alcorn told Eisenhower and a news conference Wednesday he has served 26 months in the job without salary at a great financial sacrifice and he must return to his Hartford, Conn., law practice.

Alcorn will name a committee of seven, probably next week, to discuss with Eisenhower a list of prospects for the post. He said the President's views of course would have great weight.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, 51, stood out as the likely front runner for the post, although Alcorn said about 25 names have been discussed.

Ohio Fuel Gas Co. Plans New Storage

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Fuel Gas Co. announced today it plans to spend nearly two million dollars this year to expand underground storage facilities. Ninety more storage wells will be drilled. The company already has 11 underground reservoirs in which less than a third of the natural gas needed is stored for peak winter demands.

Fifty-seven of the new wells will be drilled in Medina County. The program also calls for 10 new wells in the McArthur area of Vinon County, 8 in the Pavonia area of Ashland County, 10 in Holmes and Wayne counties and the Weaver storage area of Richland and Ashland counties, and five in the Wellington storage area of Lorain and Medina counties.

Train service meanwhile is gradually getting back to normal. There are still pockets of resistance.

In Jalapa, an important rail junction 150 miles east of Mexico City, more than 300 women demonstrated Wednesday for the release of Demetrio Vallejo, jailed head of the Railway Workers Union.

Vallejo was rounded up with an estimated 3,000 other union leaders and rail workers when the government moved to break the strike. Most of the others have been freed.

Negotiations Scheduled

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Talks between striking International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. resume here today. The strike began Feb. 28 over a contract dispute.

Crippling Fog Hits Gotham As Tornadoes Smash Florida

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A heavy crippling fog blanketed the New York area for the second day today, while tornadoes struck two communities in Florida. The high winds killed one person, injured at least nine others and caused damage estimated at more than a million dollars.

At least two lives were lost as a result of the fog blanket in New York, many airliner flights were canceled, and the near-zero visibility anchored the liner Queen Elizabeth—the world's largest—near the exit to New York Harbor. Idlewild Airport was shut down overnight and La Guardia's business was limited to the takeoff of eight planes.

The Florida tornadoes hit Dade City, about 50 miles west of Orlando and Azalea Park, a suburb of Orlando. The sheriff's office reported property damage of one million dollars at Dade City. Many houses and business buildings there were damaged or destroyed and power lines were torn down.

One death was reported at Azalea Park and at least seven were injured. The Weather Bureau warned of further possible damaging winds in south and east central Florida, but added that further twisters were not likely.

April showers, meanwhile, continued to splash areas in the east—third of the nation and the far Northwest, but fair weather prevailed in the major part of the country.

The stormy weather which struck the central plains Tuesday and Wednesday ended. Seven persons were killed and 61 others injured in Texas and Oklahoma, hit by tornadoes and severe thunderstorms.

The biggest precipitation belt during the early morning was from Michigan southward across the Ohio Valley into the southern and southeastern sections of the country. Snow fell in parts of Michigan.

Nearly 1½ inches of rain doused Augusta, Ga., and more than one inch fell in West Palm Beach, Fla. and Detroit. Thunderstorms rumbled along the Georgia coast and hail, with strong winds, swept the Columbus, Miss., area.

New Arrests Hinted Ahead In Mine Death

BARBOURVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Two high-ranking state police officials indicated more charges might be placed today in the slaying of a mine operator in the strike-bound eastern Kentucky coal fields.

Public Safety Commissioner Don Sturgill and Maj. James W. Hughes, a state police executive director, said a continuing court of inquiry was expected to produce additional charges.

Three United Mine Workers of America pickets were charged with murder Wednesday in the death of Woodrow Smith, 42.

They were John Henry Warran, 32, Arjay, who signed a statement saying he shot Smith in self-defense Tuesday near Smith's mine at Stinking Creek.

Bailey Perry, 27, Straight Creek. Fred Gregory, 21, Four Mile. He denied any part in the shooting.

Smith's mine had been picketed two days before the shooting. The UMW wants miners' daily pay raised to $24.25 a day, an increase of $2 over the old contract. The strike began March 9 in Harlan County and has spread over a seven-county area.

Hawaii Statehood Vote Scheduled for June 27

HONOLULU (AP)—Gov. William F. Quinn says Hawaii's plebiscite on statehood probably will be held the same date as its first primary election under statehood—June 27.

But he said he would not formally proclaim either this date or a general election for July 28 until the territorial Legislature approves important changes in Hawaii election laws. He must issue the proclamation before April 17 under the rules which govern states coming into being.

Odd Partners Fighting Cancer

Knife, Poison, Coin Linked in Experiment

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. (AP)—The surgeon's knife, a powerful poison and a flip of a coin.

These are the strange partners in testing a technique against cancer. First indications are promising.

Signs of success of the technique in treating breast cancer were reported by Dr. Warren Cole at this week's American Cancer Society seminar on cancer research and progress.

The test was begun more than three years ago. Dr. Cole and his colleagues wanted to try a powerful poison, nitrogen mustard, with surgery against breast cancer.

Nitrogen mustard, a cousin to the poison gas of World War I, is poisonous to both the cancer and the patient. Just enough is given to the patient to hit the tumor.

"To get the effect, you have to approach the toxic dose," said the University of Illinois researcher.

To control or compare the method properly, only half of the women participating in the test got nitrogen mustard treatment after the breast cancer operation. A flip of the coin decided which women got the poison.

Dr. Cole said cancer has recurred twice as often in women who did not get the nitrogen mustard treatment—and deaths are more than twice as high.

Other chemical compounds that are toxic to cancer cells also can be used.

Some are available that can find and destroy loose cancer cells dislodged during the cancer operation.

The surgeon controls 90 per cent of the solid tumors in men, said Dr. I. S. Ravdin of the University of Pennsylvania. But a surgeon also must concern himself with drugs to reach widely spread small cancers the knife can not find or remove.

Boys State To Convene At Ohio U

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The American Legion today announced selection of Ohio University in Athens as the site for its 1959 Buckeye Boys State. The dates set are June 11-20.

Boys State is the legion's program of self-government for high school juniors.

Selection of Ohio University came after Boys State officials refused to use the former site at Camp Perry on Lake Erie under terms laid down by Adjt. Gen. Loren Windom. Camp Perry has been used since 1950.

An agreement between Boys State and Ohio University officials was reached Wednesday. W. L. DeWeese, secretary of Boys State board of trustees said it calls for use of four dormitories with quarters for 1,040 boys, the field house for meetings, and certain other buildings for offices and adult housing.

"Ohio University officials seemed happy to have us and offered a housing and feeding contract which will enable Boys State to live within its income," DeWeese reported.

"While these combined items will cost more than at Camp Perry, we expect to save the difference by eliminating various expenses which were necessary at the camp."

Soviet Assured Of 'Concrete' Germany Deal

NATO Ministers Told Communists Must End 'Domination' Effort

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told the North Atlantic Council today that the Western powers intend to make "concrete and realistic proposals" to the Soviet Union for agreements on disarmament, Germany, European security and outer space.

He said the real need for world peace is that the Communists abandon their "purpose of world domination."

In a speech prepared for the opening session of the 10th anniversary meeting of the 15-nation alliance, Eisenhower said that though they strive for settlement, the free nations must expect to live in an atmosphere of tension and conflict with the Soviet Union for years.

To meet that test successfully the greatest need of the non-Communist world is unity and unity is "the very life blood of NATO," he said.

Eisenhower was the headline speaker at the opening ceremonial session.

He referred only briefly to the Berlin crisis with which the Allied leaders of North America and Western Europe are preoccupied.

The Berlin situation dominates the NATO gathering.

"We shall always open the door of honest discussion—even to those whose creed is world domination," Eisenhower said.

"Our government conducts continuous—almost daily—discussions and negotiations with the Soviet Union. We use regular diplomatic establishments, special committees, organs of the United Nations, and occasional meetings of responsible political leaders."

"No means are overlooked that yield promise of constructive results."

"We shall continue these negotiations and discussions. We shall continue to make concrete and realistic proposals for disarmament, for a just solution to the problems of Germany, for European security and for cooperation in the newly opening realm of outer space."

"Although we shall always avoid substituting illusions for reality, we shall continue to strive for a more general and far-reaching, but always practical, settlement of differences with the Soviets."

"The need, as we reach for a lasting peace with justice, is the abandonment of the Communist purpose of world domination."

"We shall never cease to encourage such a change. Meanwhile, we must be prepared during the years ahead to live in a world in which tension and bickering between free nations and the Soviets will be daily experiences. To do this, freedom's greatest requirement is unity—the unity which is the very life blood of NATO."

Eisenhower said that after World War II there was momentary hope that "mankind had begun to put aside the weapons of war in favor of the tools of peace."

But, he went on, the development of nuclear weapons meant that war could threaten entire civilizations. Almost simultaneously with the realization of this fact, Eisenhower said, came the rise of a new dictatorship—Soviet Communism—with such great power that it "openly challenged the concepts of justice and freedom which our respective nations adhere to and support."

To meet this threat and protect the spiritual foundation of Western civilization against any kind of attack—military, economic or political—NATO was created, Eisenhower said.

"Since NATO was formed," Eisenhower continued, "there has been no further Communist advance in Europe—either by political or military means. And while our military efforts have obviously required economic sacrifice, they have by no means stunted the economic growth of member countries."

"By our association," Eisenhower declared, "we have created possibilities for new and unprecedented forms of economic cooperation among the free peoples of Europe. Together we have laid the foundation for intimate Atlantic partnership in other fields, such as science and technology. All these achievements of the past decade merely point the way for an accelerated progress ahead."

Man Accused Of Accosting Columbus Boy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two patrolmen rescued a 6-year-old Chinese boy Wednesday night, soon after the child was abducted by a man for immoral purposes, police reported.

The boy's 8-year-old sister also was seized by the abductor, but she broke away from him.

The boy, Tony Chan, was unharmed except for a severely bruised face.

"He hurt me, he hurt me," Tony screamed as he saw a patrolman jump from a cruiser and start chasing William Echols, 25.

Echols started to run dragging Tony part of the way, then let him drop to the ground. Two patrolmen cornered Echols in a backyard and subdued him after a brief but violent struggle.

The divorced and unemployed Columbus man said he had been drinking before he grabbed the two children. He told police his actions were spontaneous and that he intended to release the boy.

Tony is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chan, who operates a laundry. His sister, Mable, told her parents of the abduction, then gave police a description of the man.

Every available patrolman and detective converged on the area. Some 45 minutes later, patrolman Donald Shartz spotted the boy and man and gave chase.

New Deferment Policy Listed For National Guard, Reserve

Jack Clifton, chairman of local Draft Board No. 96 for Pickaway County, today announced the receipt of a new national policy for the deferment of National Guardsmen and Reservists.

The draft board chairman pointed out that the Presidential Executive Order provides for greater recognition by local boards of service in the Reserve and National Guard units.

The changes reflect a policy of not inducting registrants who are satisfactorily participating in military training programs while there are sufficient numbers available to fill draft calls who are not taking part in such training.

"The last session of Congress," Clifton said, "either changed or confirmed three major provisions of the Selective Service law as it pertains to members of the National Guard of Reserve."

"IN THE FIRST PLACE, men who acquire deferments or exemptions on their initial entry into the Guard of Reserve will keep their deferments or exemptions even though they transfer to another component so long as they continue to serve satisfactorily."

"For example, some enlistments in the Reserve provide that men can take care of their military obligations by eight years of satisfactory service including not less than three months of active duty for training."

"It is now possible for these registrants to transfer to a different component of the Reserve during the eight-year period and still retain this opportunity."

"The second item which was clarified in the change to the draft law permits Guardsmen or Reservists to be deferred for satisfactory participation in the Standby Reserve. This was previously limited to Ready Reservists," Clifton said.

"The third amendment provides that a man who ceases to be a member of any Reserve component after six years of satisfactory Ready Reserve service shall be considered to have completed service."

"These changes to our regulations," Clifton emphasized, "are indicative of the trend expressed several years ago by the President to provide the country with a reserve force able to act in case of emergency."

Ohio Political, Business Leaders Get Annual Roasting

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's political and business leaders were given a thorough "roasting" by the press Wednesday night—and they enjoyed it. At least their laughter indicated as much.

More than 400 guests attended the annual 200 - a - plate Gridiron Show staged by the Press Club of Ohio here.

And the gridiron was in no way connected with a football field, although the newsmen's target were kicked around but good in the barrage of stinging but good-natured comments.

The political and business leaders were portrayed by the newsmen in a series of skits in which: Herschel C. Atkinson Sr., Ohio Chamber of Commerce executive, was tried and hanged for "attempted murder of the Republican party" because of his association with the ill-fated right-to-work campaign in last November's election.

Gopey, the unwanted, beloved GOP elephant, underwent psychoanalysis in an attempt to cure his lack of will to voters.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle held a 79-day news conference, then hypnotized the last newsmen who was awake. After all were asleep, he announced he had pardoned a much publicized convicted criminal.

In another skit, DiSalle was portrayed as barging into a "millionaires club" steamroom filled with Democratic presidential hopefuls. He cheerfully admitted he didn't have a million dollars, but I have a two-billion-dollar budget with four years to spend it.

Throughout the show, a bellboy Camp. Th page kept offering Licio, the Toledo gangster who was transferred to Ohio Penitentiary after the state discovered he had been receiving preferential treatment at Hocking Honor Camp. The page kept offering Licio telephone service and food and even a key to the Big House.

Sen. Stephen M. Young sang "I'll walk alone," in memory of his refusal to walk down the U.S. Senate aisle with fellow Democratic Sen. Frank J. Lausche.

The newsmen even took note of DiSalle's political feud with Sen. Charles J. Carney of Youngstown, who had complained in real life that he was "disenchanted" with the DiSalle administration's "government by press release and government by trial balloon."

The newsmen presented Atkinson with the annual "boner award" for the year's top political blunder.

The vanished bone bore the inscription: "You took the fall into the biggest booby trap of all—right-to-work."

Other officers elected were Mrs. H. O. Caldwell, Route 1, Lockbourne, was elected President of the Pickaway County Women's Republican Club during a recent meeting held in the Scioto Valley Grange Hall.

Other officers elected were Mrs. H. E. Louis, New Holland, vice president; Mrs. Wilbur Gillespie, treasurer, and Mrs. J. B. Work, 150 Watt St., secretary.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. Elmer A. Payne, Mrs. Cecil Ward, Mrs. Earl Kissell, Mrs. Paul E. Peters, Mrs. Vause Plake and Miss Lucille Blake.

Tax Exempt Bond Sales To Hit Record

Dealers To Handle $8 Billion Total In Current Year

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The well-heeled investor's darlings — tax exempt bonds — are expected to hit a new high in volume this year. Bond dealers are confident today that rising yields and high taxes will help them sell the lot.

State and municipal offerings were just under 7 billion dollars in 1957. They climbed to nearly 7 1/2 billion last year, and bond men say they may top 8 billion dollars in 1959.

Already there's a whopping total outstanding for any one to buy if he wants to cut his federal income tax payments. At the start of the year there were 54 billion dollars of such issues, 3 1/2 times as many as just 12 years before.

Offerings are expected to increase because state and local governments face a growing demand for civil service facilities. It's unlikely taxes can be hiked enough to take care of all immediate needs. Borrowing must be increased.

Tax-conscious investors are giving state and municipal securities a bigger play because yields on them are approaching those on some common stocks. For taxpayers in the upper brackets, this puts the return much higher.

If a man without dependents has a net taxable income of $10,000-$12,000 (38 per cent tax bracket) and can find a tax-exempt bond paying 4 per cent, he is getting a yield equal to 6.45 per cent on a blue chip common stock on which he must pay taxes. Such yields on blue chips are few and far between.

The big flood of municipals since the war has sent yields higher. Anticipated larger offerings may hike yields again. And if heavy U.S. Treasury offerings, or an increase in corporate security flotations, send yields on taxable bonds higher, the taxless variety may tag along too in competition for available investment funds.

Most outstanding tax-exempts are of the general obligation variety. That means interest and yearly amortization are paid out of state or municipality general funds — raised by taxation of the property, sales or other tax variety. The various governments stand fully behind them, so they can be sold at lower interest costs than can revenue bonds.

This second variety pays interest and amortization out of collections of tolls or other fees paid by users of the specific project. They aren't a burden on the general taxpayer. Since they depend on the success of the project they financed, interest charges are usually higher.

Can't Ship All to Planets

Every so often when the problem of what to do with the ever-growing population of the world comes up, somebody suggests that perhaps Space Age discoveries will solve the problem.

But the Population Reference Bureau of Chicago will have none of it. Robert Cook, director of the bureau, puts it this way:

"Clearly, inner space—the actual area of our planet comprising 52 million square miles of land surface—including a rctic wastes, deserts and mountain ranges—will be filled to overflowing with people in no very great length of time.

"There have recently been serious suggestions that the earth's excess population could be moved to other planets.

"The absurdity of this solution of the population problem is made clear when we consider that 137,000 people a day would have to be moved into outer space to keep the number stable," Cook estimates. This "science fiction solution" won't do, says Cook. "The human race will have to solve its problems on this planet and sooner rather than later."

It's Smart To Cut Down Aid

It has become almost axiomatic that everybody is in favor of federal economy except when it touches one's own interest. It is therefore refreshing to read an occasional dissenting note in this ticklish field.

The building industry should stand on principle and refuse to support ill-conceived government spending programs even when they might give the industry temporary advantage, says Stanley C. Hope, president of the National Association of Manufacturers. He delivered this message to the New York Building Congress recently.

Big federal expenditures for local facilities "not only consume enormous amounts of the taxpayers' money," he said, "but determine what kind of facilities will be built and what plans must be followed."

He warned that stepped up federal spending can result in streets where there should be hospitals, airports where there should be schools, etc.

To Be Happy, Be Unselfish

NEW YORK (AP)—"Life can get awful complicated if you let it," said Art Carney. "But why let it?"

Carney now is riding a one-man success wave in television. But he has stirred a minimum of echoes in his home life.

When the studio lights die down after a performance, Carney heads for his 55-by-100-foot plot in suburban Yonkers, where he and his wife, Jean, and their three children live quietly.

"We have a nice family life, and we want to keep it that way," said Art. "My wife and I live in the same kind of neighborhood we both were born in, and most of our close friends live in the neighborhood. Our life isn't all show business."

Carney is a friendly, easy-talking man off camera. But he has always shown a stubborn insistence in working toward his own goals. During a break in rehearsals for his show, he talked of his start in the business.

"I always was a loner," he said. "In high school I would have been frightened at the idea of joining a dramatic society. But I enjoyed working out my own act—tap dancing and impressions—which I did at school affairs."

Art spent some years as a novelty band singer and club entertainer before going into radio, determined to become an actor.

The war slowed him for a time. He went into the Army a private, and came out a corporal.

A few days after entering European combat his leg was riddled by enemy shrapnel. The war also left him slightly deaf in his right ear.

"I still get $55 a month from the government for my bum leg," he said. "And I can still use it."

Carney has never had a real television show of his own, and says he isn't in any hurry for one. He has been signed to do eight special shows next season, ranging from revues to straight drama and children's programs.

"I prefer it that way, rather than doing a straight comedy series," Art said. "I like to do a little bit of everything."

Asked his personal philosophy, Art said:

"Once, while walking through a country churchyard, I came across a gravestone that said: 'She lived not for herself but for others.'"

"It has stuck in my mind ever since. It is so true. I don't know anyone who is unselfish, who is always thinking of others, who is personally unhappy. It is impos-

We Must Pay Police More

I saw an item in the "Providence Journal" that a new Federal prison in Illinois will cost $110,000,000 which must make a whale of a prison. I am further informed that the New York State Division of Parole has about 13,000 parolees under supervision each year. My informant calculates this way:

"... In the event these men were to be reincarcerated, it would take roughly six state prisons and reformatories at 2,000 men per institution to confine these men. Six times the going rate of $110,000,000 per institution comes to a staggering $660,000,000 in capital construction costs that this same small agency offsets in any one given calendar year, simply by reason of its being."

"Add to this the $2,000 per year necessary to maintain an inmate in a prison or reformatory, times 13,000 men (parolees) living in the community and you have $26,000,000 annual saving to the state; add again the figure saved by having these men outside supporting or contributing to the support of their families and thereby removing said families from the rolls of public welfare and you probably end up with a total saving to the State of $60 million annually as the barest of bare minimum figure."

Now all this arithmetic is fairly startling and it makes one shudder at the thought that he pays taxes for all this. It would be cheaper to go back to the Middle Ages and hang everybody who commits any kind of crime.

My letter-writer, however, did not have that as his objective. He is undoubtedly a kindly and gentle person and believes in the parole system which only costs the state $4,000,000 a year for approximately 200 field parole officers, practically all of whom are university graduates and who, despite their learning and the difficulties of their tasks, earn about $5,000 a year.

However, this is quite another problem. How many of the parolees return to crime? How many mend their ways and become respectable citizens? Every once in a while, when one reads of a frightful act of human debasement, it turns out that a parolee has returned to the very horrible acts which first brought him to prison.

Surely, the parole system throughout this country requires re-study and reorganization. And it is ridiculous to entrust men with such serious work and then to underpay them.

If our state governments and municipalities cut out waste and duplication and graft among politicians and contractors, they would have enough money on hand to pay for teachers, policemen and parole officers. If there is no money to pay for such services, they will deteriorate; decent men and women will decline to serve. This has ceased to be a joke, particularly in the larger cities of the country where all services are deteriorating because pay is not attractive.

If the parole system is of value, it must be paid for. If it is not of value, it should be abolished.

The fact of the matter is that crime in this country is on the increase. The statistics are for arrest for crimes; there are no figures for those who get away with muggings, robberies, rapes and murders. The sex crimes that are reported are atrocious but the decline in sex morality cannot be reported but can only be surmised.

The enormous cost of maintaining prisons is justified either on the assumption that criminals must be caged like wild animals or that prison life can be translated into a character building process which will assist the criminal to a better life, whereupon he will be paroled and eventually inducted into society as an honorable man.

Less than that makes the entire system meaningless and is less rational than the older Chinese system of clipping off the heads of wrong-doers and saving the cost of their improvement. I shall never forget my first view of decapitated human beings hanging on poles in Tientsin, China, as a warning to other wrong-doers. But the warning never warmed because there were always new wrong-doers on the poles.

What is really so devastating among us is that with police, parole officers and other law enforcement officers so underpaid, it is astonishing that more of them do not try their hand at making an untaxed dollar or so.

High tax and low pay is a very bad formula for law enforcers.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—The absence of John Foster Dulles, ill with cancer, has left a vacuum in Washington. At this time of trouble with the Soviet Union he could have been making the most use of his special technique.

That technique was to hold news conferences where he could do a number of jobs at once: Get across American viewpoints, state foreign policy positions, float trial balloons, answer the Soviets, try to put them on the defensive.

Secretary of State Dulles held more news conferences than any other member of President Eisenhower's Cabinet.

Undersecretary Christian A. Herter—the man who is taking Dulles' place—has not held a news conference since Dulles went to the hospital Feb. 9.

It is understandable that Herter should be reluctant to sound off. Although Dulles was in the hospital, Eisenhower consulted with him frequently and Herter could hardly try to run the show.

Eisenhower relied on Dulles in foreign affairs to an amazing degree, and delegated to him enormous power and responsibility, particularly as a spokesman.

Eisenhower's news conferences were never the same as Dulles' if only because he lacked Dulles' detailed knowledge of events abroad. But he also lacked Dulles' training and skill in language.

Eisenhower, with Dulles no longer at his side, in recent weeks has asserted more leadership in foreign affairs than when Dulles was in there carrying the ball. The President has been increasingly forceful.

Anyone who ever attended a Dulles news conference could not but admit he was a master at using the precise phrase to get the exact effect he sought.

A great deal which could be said about the Berlin crisis is going unsaid because Dulles isn't there. Herter has held no news conferences and Eisenhower's news conferences provide about all the administration is saying on Berlin.

The recent conference here between Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is a good example of how Dulles' presence on the scene is missed.

The British managed to pump out to correspondents—or to selected correspondents—the British viewpoint. The American viewpoint in the talks with Macmillan was much less publicized.

Dulles, if he had been around, would have taken care of that.

Ironically, it is possible the Soviets have agreed to a foreign ministers meeting on Berlin—preliminary to a summit meeting—because it seems unlikely Dulles could attend it.

Before the Soviets ever created the Berlin crisis they were caling on Eisenhower early in 1958 to meet them at the summit.

They had long correspondence with the President about it. But early in that letter-writing campaign the then Premier Bulganin made it plain the Soviets did not want a foreign ministers meeting with Dulles.

Bulganin didn't mention Dulles by name but even so he was almost insulting in the way he told Eisenhower that trying to do business with Dulles, from the Soviet viewpoint, was no good.

It was only in March—after Dulles' condition had been diagnosed as cancer and it seemed probable he would never return to his post—that the Soviets agreed to a foreign ministers meeting before holding a summit conference.

Don't Lose Too Much Sleep

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Don't be a sleep cheat. A sleep cheat doesn't suffer from insomnia. He can sleep, but he doesn't, at least he doesn't sleep enough.

His problem might be that he has an extra evening job which prevents him from getting to bed on time. Maybe he is a person who simply plays too hard and gets home too late.

Usually, though, I think you will find that television and some of those late late shows are the real villains. You get trapped at the beginning of a live show or a movie, and simply stay up to see the end.

A recent article in the American Medical Association publication, "Today's Health," warns that these sleep cheats are only cheating themselves. For they are taking chances on losing their jobs, their marriages—and even their lives.

Common sense will tell you that you can't stagger on forever without sufficient sleep. Eventually, lack of proper sleep will catch up with you.

Signs of chronic sleep shortage in the order in which they are likely to appear, are:

1. Poor timing and muscular control.
2. Strained vision, with objects shifting in size and shape.
3. Impaired hearing and reduced sense of touch, temperature and pressure.
4. Increased irritability, depression and discouragement.
5. Perhaps eventually, collapse from sheer exhaustion.

In some cases, there is a tendency toward a loss of the sense of reality, according to the AMA article. The writer, Theodore Irwin, explains this as a case where fantasy oozes into fact.

How can you tell whether you are getting enough sleep?

Hutton, Hutton Who's Got Hutton?

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—At Mount Union College Robert L. Hutton is a transfer student majoring in physical education. He belongs to Alpha Tau Omega and his father's name is Harold.

Both of him, that is. Two students of that name have run into plenty of confusion this year over the similarity. They have been marked absent or present in each other's classes. Until the boys had trouble getting two lunches for what seemed to be one student.

Finally they discovered a key to establishing identification. The one from Byesville, Ohio, has the middle name of Lee.

The one from Montclair, N. J., is Leroy.

A Look at Key to Kremlin

Khrushchev, Born Crude, Now Is Shrewd, Bullheaded

Editor's note—American tradition has its backwoods clodhopper. The Russian equivalent is the muzhik — crude and vulgar but shrewd and strong and bullheaded. Nikita Khrushchev was born a muzhik. Today he displays a veneer of polish but basically he is still the shrewd countryman who knows what he wants and how to get it. This is the fourth of five articles giving an insight into his career.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

There, in the middle of things, bubbled Nikita Khrushchev, jabbing a stubby finger into the chest of his startled listener.

The scene was a British Embassy reception in Moscow in mid-1954. The listener was Clement Attlee, head of Britain's Labor Party.

Stalin, safely mummified, lay in his gaudy Red Square tomb. His lieutenants had faces now. They were individuals. They could talk out in public.

Khrushchev talked and talked, torrents of rapid, often ungrammatical Russian tinged with Ukrainian accent. Through it all his broad, persistent grin exposed two front teeth of glittering gold. His pale blue eyes stared into his hearer's. His pudgy fists would grab the hearer's lapel and hold him captive.

Cultivated, taciturn Georgi Malenkov, who considered himself Stalin's heir, looked on with a superior smile. Few outsiders seemed to take Khrushchev seriously, and some in the Kremlin made the same mistake.

"Noisy chap," muttered Attlee

Iran has artificial underground canals to carry water for irrigation. The reason for underground water to aid agriculture is that, in hot temperature countries, the system preserves water from waste and evaporation.

when the talking bout was over. The first summit meeting still was a year away, but already it may have been in the back of Khrushchev's mind as a device to lull the West. An era of smiles had begun.

Moscow's collective leadership was a mutual protective association to prevent any one man from getting the upper hand. Its first concern was to break the power of Lavrenty Beria, whose army of secret police nearly took over Moscow at the hour of Stalin's death. With the help of Marshal Georgi Zhukov and the army, the collective destroyed Beria and purged the secret police machine.

Stalin's power had derived from control of both party and police. Having pushed Malenkov aside, Khrushchev had the party reins. No single leader had the police to himself. Khrushchev's authority increased. The world began to take more notice of him.

The Kremlin in 1954 was under severe strain. The Korean War was ended, a Stalin gamble which failed. The Indochina War was ending. Moscow hinted it wanted to settle the Austrian occupation problem, too. The Kremlin made extraordinary gestures toward Yugoslavia's Tito, the maverick Communist with whom Stalin feuded.

And the Soviet consumer was promised the world on a platter if he would just be patient.

The collective leadership, to the uncritical observer, was just one big happy family.

Khrushchev exploded the happy family notion in 1955. He outfoxed Malenkov and required him to step down as premier, confessing himself a failure. Khrushchev installed pliable Nikolai Bulganin as premier — a mere echo of Khrushchev himself.

Thereafter, Khrushchev did the talking. At home he indicated the consumer would have to wait for the promised amenities of life while the U.S.S.R. concentrated on heavy industry to build world power.

Abroad he mixed smiles with threats. Khrushchev and Bulganin journeyed to Belgrade to get Tito's forgiveness for Stalin's abuse.

Did all this mean the Russians at last planned to relax Communist pressure in the world's trouble spots? Snorted Khrushchev:

"If anyone believes our smiles involve abandoning the teachings of Marx, Engels and Lenin, he deceives himself badly. Those who wait for that 'I wait until the shrimp learns to whistle'."

The West waited in vain for a whistling shrimp. In mid-summer, 1955, Khrushchev got the summit conference he so eagerly sought. Soviet propaganda conjured up a "spirit of Geneva." But that smiling ghost faded away quickly. By autumn Moscow was intruding in the Middle East with arms and propaganda.

Khrushchev and his shadow, Bulganin, went through India and southeast Asia like an amiable bear pawing for honey. Often he shocked his hosts, but he was making powerful propaganda.

"Truth is thorny and prickly for the eyes," thundered proverb-loving Khrushchev.

Truth was indeed thorny. In a secret speech punctuated by emotional sobs, Khrushchev denounced Stalin as a barbarian torturer, murderer and blunderer.

Next: Khrushchev's gospel of Communism.

West's Envoys Booked on TV

Ministers To Face College Quiz Sunday

NEW YORK (AP)—Persons in public life increasingly make use of television panel programs to express views that make news.

One of these, in which youth asks the questions, is "College News Conference" (ABC-TV, Sundays, 1 p.m., EST). Next Sunday, for example, the foreign ministers of the top NATO powers will appear on the program in observance of the 10th anniversary of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

They will be questioned by Ruth Hagy, producer and moderator of the program instead of the usual panel of five young people.

Miss Hagy said the purpose of the program not only is to learn the views of prominent guests but also to "present American youth in a positive light." The panelists are selected each week from a list of 700 colleges.

Miss Hagy said: "The young college people we encounter are more global-minded than when I was in school. But they don't seem able to work up the passions and indignations that we did when I was in college."

"They seem to feel that the era of social welfare reform is pretty much over. Their paramount concern is the threat of war."

"I don't think they're more conformist than we were. Young people always have had a great emotional need to live in groups. They establish their own clothing and slang and the like. It helps them cut the umbilical cord to their parents."

"To my mind, the sad thing about so many young people today is that they don't seem young enough. They're all so realistic and have an astonishingly high degree of acceptance of things as they are."

Bing Crosby Is Not Alone In Having Children Trouble

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Bing Crosby has admitted what other famous fathers have discovered: It's not easy to rear children in Hollywood.

Speaking of his four elder sons, the crooner commented in an interview: "I think I've failed them by giving them too much work and discipline, too much money and too little time and attention."

Symptoms of Crosby's "failure" as a father: Two sons have been arrested for drunk driving; all four have haunted the gay world of Las Vegas (Philip and Dennis married showgirls); the parties of Gary and Lindsay have brought complaints from neighbors.

Bing is not the only star to be troubled by his children. His brother Bob's son, Chris, 15, was once arrested when police said he tried to steal a car.

Edward G. Robinson Jr., has been in the news repeatedly with drunk arrests.

John Barrymore Jr. made the papers recently with a felony hit and run, drunk driving charge.

Barbara Ann Burns, daughter of the late comedian Bob Burns, was sentenced to 90 days for drug addiction.

And then there was Cheryl Crane, daughter of Lana Turner, who killed her mother's lover—but was later absolved of blame.

Of course, these headlined scions of the famous don't tell the whole story.

There are far more sons and daughters of stars who, over the years, have never made the scandalous news. Examples: Budding performers Pat Wayne (John); Jody McCrea (Joel); Ronnie Burns (George and Gracie); Ricky and David Nelson (Ozzie and Harriet); Director Andy McGarglin (Victor) and baseball executive Joe Brown (Joe E.).

But there are enough troubled stars to point a trend. Why is this?

There appear to be two big reasons:

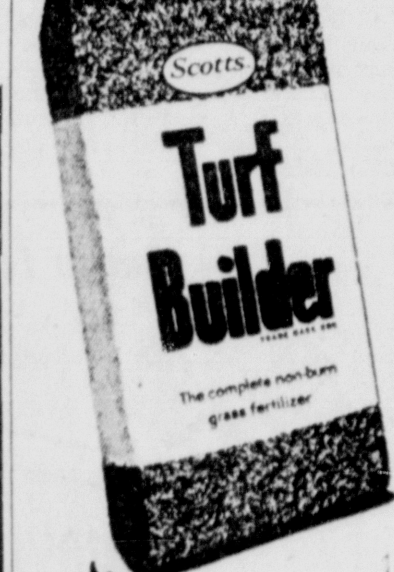

1. The position of a movie star can be an overpowering one, but

Bigamist Prefers Second Wife, Jail

ASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Ernest Sears Jr. gave up his first wife, their two children and a new home in Florida for his second wife and a prison term of one to two years.

His lawyer said Tuesday that Sears wanted to "serve his time so he could be with the woman he loved."

Sears, 23, was convicted of bigamy last month. The charge later was reduced to attempting to commit a felony. Sentence was suspended on condition he return to his first wife an disupport her and their children.

His lawyer, Dan Garfinkle, said Sears went to Winn, Fla., and got a job and a new house.

"But last Thursday he kissed his first wife goodbye and came to Nashville... (to be) with his second wife," Garfinkle said.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Your Slip Is Showing, Mom!

DEAR ABBY: My teen-aged son was picked up by the police for "Loitering, Disturbing the Peace and Suspicion" whatever that means. When questioned he said, "There is nothing to do in this town." Don't you think it is the crime of society against our children instead of the other way around? Doesn't Society owe our children something? MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Society owes us nothing... on the contrary we owe Society our co-operation, energy, talents and time. Too many parents expect "Society" to raise their children and provide entertainment for them. The basic moral lessons are learned at home. Provide your children with a good healthy home life (and do not forget to introduce them to church at an early age and you won't have to worry about what they do when they have nothing to do.

DEAR ABBY: I am only thirteen years old but I know the answer to a question I see in your column very often. It is about mixing religions. I was raised Jewish and so was my brother. He fell in love with a Catholic girl and nobody could stop him from marrying her. She is a nice girl, Abby, but her folks were just as broke up about the marriage as ours. My brother changed his religion for her. They had a darling baby, but she died when she was only eleven months old. Mom fainted when she saw the beads around her little fingers. There has been no happiness in our house since we started mixing religions. Please put this in your column, Abby. Maybe it will help somebody.

A JEWISH GIRL

DEAR ABBY: My in-laws think it is terrible for a lady to smoke so I never smoke in front of them and they don't know I smoke. My problem is how to keep my one-year-old son from telling them I smoke when he gets old enough to talk plainly. I know that telling

Dayton Gardener, Just 105, Worries About His Crops

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Andrew Jackson Jordan was busy working in his garden with that springtime sparkle in his blue eyes. Oh, yes he turned 105 Thursday, but that's not half as important as plant time to Andy.

"You see, I like to get my beans out early so I can harvest two crops," he explained. "And my flags (iris) are already four inches high and some of the onion sets are ready and..."

But what about this birthday? "Oh, that. Yep. Time for another one. Feel fine, get a little weary sometimes though. But listen, I'm putting in this new variety of tomato this year..."

Andrew Jackson Jordan, who lives with his daughter, Mrs. Daisy Hawkins, his parakeet "Billy" and his dog "Prince," is living life as he's always lived it—eagerly and enthusiastically.

He takes walks, watches TV (westerns are his favorites), helps his daughter by washing the dishes and carrying out the trash, puts away three man-sized meals a day. A sample breakfast: Grapefruit, bacon, eggs, four slices of toast, coffee and a glass of milk.

His secret: "I used to say will power," Andy grinned, "but I guess I just must be a good man."

Every night Andy is on hand to see his daughter, who works third shift at a local plant, off to work. "He goes out and stands on the porch when my ride comes to be sure I get in the right car," Mrs. Hawkins smiled. When she gets home at 7:30 a.m., Andy's up and dressed, sitting in the window waiting for her.

A former blacksmith and farmer, Andy retired—nominally anyway—when he was 83.

His hearing remains good and he has never worn glasses. He's a familiar figure strolling, cane in hand, in the area. (The cane, Andy confides, is mostly for show. He gets alone fine without it.)

"Never know why all the fuss," said Andy, posing for his annual birthday picture. "Shucks, it just runs in my family, this living to a ripe old age." It does, too. One of Andy's sisters lived to be 107, another 101, and his brother lived to be 104.

Andy's the last of his generation and nobody should bet that he won't set a new record.

Wonderful accompaniment for lamb: sliced cucumbers dressed with white wine vinegar diluted with water, sugar, salt and fresh minced dill.

Odd Infrared Radiation Is Under Study

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—A Harvard scientist announced today an idea for a device to detect one of nature's weakest forms of radiation and said it might lead to development of improved medicines, industrial products and electronic devices.

Physicist Nicolaas Bloembergen said plans already are under way at Harvard for building such an apparatus, designed to detect, in chemicals, the emission of a particular form of infrared radiation. Infrared radiation is one of the forms of "invisible light" in the electromagnetic spectrum. Studies of its emission by various materials have long proved a valuable aid in chemical and other analysis.

Bloembergen said there's a kind of infrared which is so weak, and so little known that it constitutes a "no man's land" in the spectrum. And it's in this range of the infrared — intermediate in the spectrum between the stronger type of infrared and radar-type microwaves—that he plans to use the proposed detection device.

The scientist gave the details in amplifying on a technical paper presented at a meeting of the American Physical Society at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Political Units Paid Rent by Government

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government funds were paid to five political organizations for congressional office space during 1957-58, House records show.

Made public by the House disbursement clerk, the records are for the year ended last June 30. Rental vouchers for the current fiscal year which started last July 1 will not be available until later.

House members, according to law, are allowed $1,200 a year to rent office space in their home districts when free space is not available in government buildings.

The records show these amounts as having been paid to political organizations for office rental for the following members or former members:

Rep. James C. Healey (D-NY) $1,025 to the Sedgewick Democratic Club, New York City, in 1957.

Former Rep. Emmet F. Byrne (R-Ill.) $1,250 to the 19th Ward Republican organization Chicago, during 1957 and 1958.

Former Rep. James B. Bowler (D-Ill.) $300 to the 25th Ward regular Democratic organization, Chicago, in 1957.

Rep. Charles M. Teague (R-Calif.) $1,025 to the Ventura County Republican Central Committee, in 1957 and 1958.

Rep. Jack Westland (R-Wash.) $300 in 1958 to the Republican Central Committee, Everett, Wash.

Old Pro of Dixieland Jazz Frightened by Music Trend

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jack Teagarden, the old pro of Dixieland jazz, wants to put heart back into the music business.

After 35 years of trombone tooting on three continents, Teagarden says he's a little frightened by some trends in American music.

With a nostalgic look in his eyes, he told of the era which produced Tatum, Goodman, Miller, Bigard and Armstrong.

"You hear a lot of noise these days, but what does it mean?"

"There's hardly a demand for anything good any more. Everyone used to enjoy music. It was festive. It was gay. It was romantic. You could dance to it. It came from the heart."

"Everything is a fad now," he chattered, chiming, howling, or uses — anything to get a different sound."

Teagarden isn't worried about the quality of today's performers. "Technically, they're better than the musicians of 20 or 30 years ago," he said.

Jack does much of the arranging for his own band. On a recent tour of Asia for the State Department, he stopped in New Del and asked for the score for the Indian national anthem.

The only one available was for the 90-piece Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, which visited India a few years ago. Teagarden hurriedly re-arranged for his sextet.

That tour ended, Teagarden entered a hospital here for a stay of two months. The effects of extensive surgery show. He has a gaunt look and seems older than his 53 years.

Tribunal Convicts Man in 1947 Slaying

GEORGETOWN, Ohio (AP)—A three-judge court has convicted Fred Moore, 67, of first degree murder in the slaying of his wife, Goldie Irene Moore, in 1947.

Moore was confined in the Lima State Hospital for criminally insane until last February when he was declared sane.

The verdict Wednesday included a recommendation for mercy which makes a life sentence mandatory. Brown County Common Pleas Judge John H. Houston deferred sentence, however, until there is time for an appeal.

Stiff Gusts of Wind Hit Columbus Areas
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—William Holmes reported seeing a "brown funnel" pick up a large metal garage and hurl it 100 feet or more near his home southwest of here Wednesday night. Winds of 50 m.p.h. hit the Columbus area and toppled a 56-foot section of an eight-foot high concrete block wall at Buckeye Iron Metal Co. here. There also was scattered damage to utility lines.

During the business session plans were made to have Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan attend the May meeting. The Morgans were Agricultural Missionaries to India and have now returned to the States. They will show movies and tell about their work in India. The Ladies Aid of the Whistler church will be guests at this meeting.

A Family Night Dinner is planned for the latter part of September, at which time a film "Village Reborn" will be shown. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dwight Famuliner, Mrs. Guy Donahue, and Mrs. William Francis.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Maxson, Laurelville Route 1, entertained on Easter with a family dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Carol Minor and family, Roger, Donna and Nancy were among those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Davis and son Jimmy had for their Easter dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Davis, Mrs. Evelyn Stephenson, and son Joey.

Mrs. Lois Jones and Miss Margaret Thomas spent Sunday with Mrs. C. L. Thomas and son, Philip, at East Ringgold.

Miss Ann Roll, a student nurse at Grant Hospital, spent her Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. Leona Roll.

The Yo-Ma-Co organization of the Methodist Church had a very enjoyable Progressive Dinner on Saturday evening, Mar. 28.

The group of 12 couples was divided into committees and met at four different homes. The first course of juices and appetizers was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Whitten. The second course, a mixed green salad, was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, the third and fourth course at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rounsley consisted of ham loaf and several vegetables, and the last or dessert course at Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hill—where several kinds of pie, cake, and ice cream were served.

At the close of the evening a business meeting was held with Mr. Rounsley presiding. Plans were made for purchasing a large screen to be used with the new projector.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bower, on the last Saturday evening in April.

Don't forget the Spring Concert Friday, April 3, at the High School Auditorium at 8 p. m. The Elementary School, Junior Hi and Senior Hi music groups will participate. Also Jr. and Sr. High Bands.

The Primary Superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School, Mrs. Bennett, and her staff of teachers gave an Easter party for the children on Saturday. One-hundred and twenty-five boys and girls enjoyed the egg hunt out on the lawn, and the refreshments of ice cream and cookies which followed.

A Sunrise service was held at 6:30 a. m. Mr. William Russell played organ selections, and the choir furnished special music. Mr. Carol Minor read the scripture lesson, and Mr. Richard Beavers gave an inspiring message.

They met at the home of Mrs. Search at one o'clock and very much enjoyed hunting eggs out in the yard. Candy eggs and suckers had also been hidden for them. All scouts were present except Margie Buchwalter, who was ill.

Cancer 'Seed' in Your Body May Date Back 100,000 Years

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. (AP)—The seeds of cancer may lurk in your body—an unwanted gift planted perhaps as long as 100,000 years ago in the cells of an ancestor.

Only a few such seeds among the trillions of cells of your body could start deadly, uncontrolled cancer.

As these seeds—perhaps sleeping viruses—were passed on generation to generation they may have awakened from time to time, bringing a sudden and unexpected cancer attack.

This is a theory expressed at this week's American Cancer Society seminar on cancer research and progress by Dr. Ludwik Gross, cancer unit chief of the Veterans Administration Hospital, Bronx, N.Y.

These sleeping viruses somehow hitchhike a ride through the centuries with the genes of the cell—getting passed along with inherited factors from one generation to the next, Dr. Gross suggested. What awakens the deadly virus? Radiation—the chance hit of an atomic ray—might provide the trigger. Or some chemical poison unrecognized as dangerous might do the trick.

Dr. Gross has succeeded in following inherited leukemia through a few generations of mice.

But he feels the theory explains why cancer seems to strike so often within certain families.

Navy To Bounce Signals Off Moon

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy says it hopes within a year to be able to bounce radio messages off the moon on their way from Washington to Hawaii.

A Navy spokesman said the chief benefit of the new development would be to lessen the possibility of signals being jammed by either an enemy or nature.

The spokesman said it is not yet known whether the new system will be completely free from disturbances, but there is no doubt that such effects will be greatly reduced. This will be true, he said, because the signals will be beamed straight up and down instead of in the normal horizontal path.

One bank in Nome, Alaska, will still cash a poke of gold if asked.

Also observed on some was what appeared to be unusual communications equipment. Kodiak Island is headquarters of the Alaska Sea Frontier, whose responsibility is protection of this land-sea region. # Maybe Cards Did Do OK in Giants Swap

Sad Sam Jones Fails To Come Through in Grapefruit Contest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The first return was in on last week's controversial Sam Jones-Bill White trade between the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco Giants. It looks like Card General Manager Bing Devine might not have gotten the bad end after all.

Devine was criticized for giving Jones, his pitching mainstay last season with a 14-13 record, to the Giants for White, who has only league experience.

Jones, in his first start for Giants manager Bill Rigney since the trade, was blasted for nine hits and 10 runs in four innings Wednesday by the Chicago Cubs who beat the Giants, 10-5. Among the hits were three-run homers by rookie George Altman and Moose Moryn.

Jones, last year's National League strikeout king, walked three and fanned four.

On the other hand, White has made a more favorable impression on Cards manager Solly Hemus — at least until his error paved the way for a five-run New York Yankee ninth inning that gave the world champions a 5-1 victory Wednesday.

Hemus decided before the game to give White the first base job and move Joe Cunningham to right field. White, who hit three home runs and batted over m300 since joining the Cards, Cunningham has been hitting under .200 all spring.

In other exhibition games, Cleveland edged Boston 5-4, Los Angeles shutout the Philadelphia Phils 8-0, Cincinnati defeated Washington 6-4, the Chicago White Sox humbled the Milwaukee Braves 8-5, the Kansas City A's won over Detroit 4-3 and Baltimore edged the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-3 in a 12-inning night game.

Rookie Jerry Casale's wild pitch let in the winning Cleveland run in the eighth inning. The Indians' Herb Score pitched three innings, giving up four runs on homers by Sammy White and Frank Malzone but striking out eight.

Gil Hodges' homer and double and Duke Snider's triple, and double powered Los Angeles to its victory while Eddie Kasko's eighth-inning triple sparked the Cincinnati win.

The White Sox routed Joey Jay with a five-run eighth inning in its victory and A's pinchhitter Preston Ward slammed a two-run homer in the ninth inning to beat the Tigers.

Al Pillarcik singled in the 12th inning to give Baltimore its victory, scoring Jim Finigan from second base.

In other major trading action, Baltimore Orioles traded temperamental right-handed pitcher Billy Loes to the Washington Senators for right-hander Vito Valentinetti.

Easy Spur Favored In $100,000 Race

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Spring Hill Farm's Easy Spur was the 9-5 choice today to win Saturday's $100,000 Florida Derby over such promising 3-year-old colts as Triolus and Sword Dancer.

Easy Spur, owned by James D. Norris, won the recent Fountain of Youth Stakes by eight and half lengths and will have Bill Hartack in the saddle for the mile and a furlong run at Gulfstream Park. Sword Dancer was second choice at 2-1 while Triolus was third choice at 5-2.

Dodgers Appear Strong This Year

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The

Dodgers don't look like the same ball club that finished a dismal seventh in their first year in Los Angeles. They look like a definite first-division contender.

Even Walter Alston, one of the most conservative of managers, is optimistic. He's convinced his club will finish several notches higher than they did in 1958.

"There's no question about our club being better," he said. "I can cite several reasons. No. 1, a lot of the fellows played two, three times a week in California and came here in excellent condition. No. 2, Duke Snider is 50 per cent improved over last year. No. 3, the fellows have an incentive. They are out to prove they can't possibly be as bad as last year."

Alston admitted he called a meeting of the clan at the start of spring training and told them the facts of life on a baseball diamond. A little more effort, a little more sweat and a little less carousing was stressed.

"My talk with them wouldn't have meant a thing if they didn't cooperate," said Alston. "The schedule was a little stiffer; they worked a little harder. But I didn't have to remind them again."

Alston admits he's has some disappointments, such as the continued arm soreness of Ed Roebuck and Roger Craig, but the improvement of Johnny Roseboro behind the plate, the hitting of newcomer Wally Moon, the pitching of Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and Carl Erskine, and the fine all-around performance of rookie Ron Fairly, have greatly overshadowed these liabilities.

Alston is still uncertain about the left side of his infield. Gil Hodges and Charley Neal have first and second base all locked up. Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis are still battling for shortstop. Third base will go to either Dick Gray or Junior Gilliam. The latter also is a candidate for left field.

In the outfield Alston has left-handed hitters Snider, Moon and Fairly and right-handers Carl Furillo, Rip Repulski and Don Demeter.

The pitching staff once again will be headed by Drysdale (12-13), Johnny Podres (13-15), Sandy Koufax (11-11), Erskine (4-4) and Stan Wallis, s (9-7). Fred Kipp (6-6) and Danny McDevitt (2-6) will be spot starters.

Next—Kansas City.

READY — Veteran Don Rowland takes up a familiar crouch at second base in anticipation of Circleville High School baseball practice at Ted Lewis Park. The versatile Rowland performs for the Tigers as a second sacker and a first line pitcher. He was one of the team's leading hitters last year. Chances are he will be the starting hurler in Friday's opening game at Chillicothe. (Staff Photo)

Deers Down Atlanta, 4-3

Williamsport and Atlanta hooked up a real duel yesterday with host Williamsport coming out on top, 4-3.

The battle centered on the pitching battle between Myers of Williamsport and Yates of Atlanta. Wining hurler Myers allowed three bingles and Yates gave up only two.

Myers actually won his own game in the last inning of play when he walked, stole second and raced home when an Atlanta peg to third went wild.

Yates proved tough in the pinches, fanning 13 and walking six. Myers was equally strong with 12 strikeouts and six passes. Noble of the Deers had the only extra-base hit of the day, a double.

After five innings, Atlanta led, 3-0, but Williamsport rallied for two runs in the sixth and one each in the seventh and eighth frames.

Darby Bombs Monroe, 18-0

The Darby Trojans bombed their hosts, the Monroe Indians, Tuesday afternoon, 18-0.

Tommy Walters held Monroe hitless for four innings and Alvin Cox finished up the five-inning affair by allowing one hit.

Darby unleashed a 21-hit attack, combined with three Monroe errors and three walks to open up its 1959 baseball season.

Top sluggers of the fray were Tommy Liff and Lynn Sheets with four apiece. Doubles were recorded by Daniels, Walters, McGlone and Liff.

WALTERS, a 13-game winner last year, was in his old form as he struck out 11 of 15 men to face him and allowed one walk, plus hitting one batter.

Losing pitcher was Steve Fullen, who gave up the 21 hits, struck out six men and walked three. Liff, Sheets and Walters each scored three runs.

CHS Squads Eye Openers

Adkins Resting Sore Shoulder

Circleville High School's baseball and track squads were working with precision in yesterday's practice in preparation for fast approaching season openers.

Coach Dick Fisher's baseballers will kick the lid off the spring season with a game scheduled tomorrow at Chillicothe with the Cavaliers. Coach John Current's cinderman hit the road for Wilmington Tuesday to open track warfare.

Both squads have been concentrating on fundamentals, with the baseball team stressing hitting, fielding and other essentials. The trackmen have been working on starts, running against the clock and drilling for field events.

The baseball squad suffered its first injury of the season through a rather unusual sequence of events. Fireballer Joe Adkins, high school pitcher deluxe apparently strained a muscle in the right shoulder this week when he tossed a rock at a bird. A main criticism of his teammates was that he missed the bird.

ADKINS' injury doesn't appear serious and he probably will be ready for action next week. The ace Tiger hurler established a fine record here last year when he pitched 30 1-3 consecutive innings without an earned run being scored against him.

This amazing feat included a no-hitter and a brace of two-hitters. He went on to chalk a 5-0 record for the season.

Adkins originally was scheduled to start on the mound against Chillicothe before the rock-throwing incident put a damper on these plans. Veteran hurler Don Rowland probably will get the nod.

If Adkins' maimed shoulder heals as expected, indications are that he will take the mound when Chillicothe comes here for a repeat engagement Tuesday.

Ed Lopat won 10 straight games against Cleveland when he starred on the mound for the Yankees. The streak began June 17, 1949 and ended July 4, 1951 when a fan tossed a black cat at the southpaw.

The March meeting of the Saltcreek PTO was presided over by the vice president, Mr. Sterling Poling.

Mrs. S. J. Fischer gave the sales tax committee report for the year. A total of $2,437.28 worth of tax stamps has been collected to date by the first eight grades.

Our representative to the Historical Society, Mrs. Sterling Poling, gave an account of the meeting and urged that everyone should search for any historical data or antiques that could be used during the 1960 celebration.

A nominating committee composed of Mrs. Nelson Jones, Walter Chambers, Jr., and Mrs. Joseph Jenkins, was appointed.

Easter set the theme for the lively program of the evening presented by the third and fourth grades.

The climax of the evening came when everyone was taken, almost literally, on a trip to Europe via color slides and interesting descriptions given by Miss Alice DeLong, Saltcreek principal.

Lake Ship Sinking Probe Is Continuing

CLEVELAND (AP)—Attorneys for both sides in damage suits for about eight million dollars resulting from the sinking of the freighters Carl D. Bradley continued taking depositions today.

They are seeking to determine responsibility for the sinking in Northern Lake Michigan Nov. 18 which took the lives of 33 crewmen.

Watchman Frank Mays of Rogers City, Mich., one of the two survivors, is scheduled for questioning today. Others are Norman Heft, general manager of the Bradley transportation line of the Michigan limestone division of United States Steel Corp., operator of the vessel; Robert Leow, a member of the line's engineering division, and Sylvester Sobek, first assistant engineer on the Bradley who was not with the ship on the fatal voyage.

The other survivor, First Mate Elmer Fleming, 43, also of Rogers City, retold the story of the sinking Wednesday. He told the attorneys he had no opinion as to what caused the ship to go down.

"There was a thud," he said. "It caused not too much motion or vibration forward. She broke at about the 10th or 11th hatch. We didn't know it until the lights went out and we turned and saw the after end sink away."

The Bradley was en route to its home port of Rogers City from Buffalo, Ind., on lower Lake Michigan, when it sank during a storm.

Attorneys are trying to find out if the sinking could have resulted from some weakness in the ship structure or lack of inspection of maintenance by the ship's crew or owners.

Fleming told how the Bradley had grounded earlier in the year at Cedarville, Wis., breaking a keel plate, which was repaired. He also told how the ship had scraped her bottom, without serious damage, and had scraped the side of a channel at Calicut, Mich., during the year.

Commissioners to Pay 1958 Children's Home Expenses

The Pickaway County Commissioners stated Monday that the $3,031.65 in unpaid 1958 bills owed by the County Children's Home will be paid in the near future.

The Commissioners received a favorable opinion from County Prosecutor Ray W. Davis concerning the bills and authorized County Auditor Mrs. Marvina H. Rhoades to initiate prompt payment.

A total of $913.29 in bills were covered by a blanket certificate signed by former Auditor Mrs. Verna M. O'Hara and approved by the County Welfare Board.

Davis said that since there was no question as to the validity of these bills, it was opinion that they can be legally paid and should have been paid by this time.

FOR UNKNOWN reasons Auditor O'Hara withheld payment of these bills although she was authorized to proceed with their payment.

There were $2,118.26 in 1958 bills over and above the Children's Home appropriations which were also unpaid.

Although these bills were approved by the Welfare Board they were not covered by a blanket certificate. One commissioner stated that this practice of the Children's Home spending more than it was allowed has been going on for the past 10 years.

The Commissioners asked for legal advice in this matter because state statute does not allow 1959 appropriated monies to pay 1958 bills.

Prosecutor Davis ruled in his opinion the Commissioners had the authority to appropriate money out of "monies-not now specifically appropriated" to pay the amount of these bills.

In a recent meeting the Commissioners informed Welfare Board Chairman, Kenneth Shepler, Route 1, that further over-expenditure of appropriations must cease.
